

I am opposed to loosening the restrictions on media ownership further.

Loosening regulations and deregulation is never the answer. Tighter regulations and reregulation is the only way to protect the public's interest.